VIII. Certain observations on the international application

The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the question whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:

Claim 1 pertains to hair papilla cell growth promoters in which the active ingredient is a compound that is defined by a desired property, namely, exhibiting an "activity that inhibits the functions of WNT-5A," and claim 2 pertains to hair papilla cell growth promoters in which the active ingredient is a compound that is defined by a desired property, namely, being "WNT-5A production inhibitors." Claims 1 and 2 include various compounds that exhibit such properties; however, only a portion of the claimed compounds are disclosed in the sense of PCT Article 5, and the compounds are not fully supported by the disclosures in the description in the sense of PCT Article 6.

Furthermore, it is impossible to specify the scope of the "compounds exhibiting an activity that inhibits the functions of WNT-5A" or of the "WNT-5A production inhibitors" even with consideration of common technical knowledge at the time of filing; therefore, claims 1 and 2 do not fulfill the requirement of clarity in the sense of PCT Article 6.
